

Imagine My Surprise

by Louie Heseemann

When I found myself in heaven, imagine my surprise ... when I discovered there was just me and this other guy.

He told me he'd been a "clutterer" too (but letting go of his clutter seemed to be the right thing to do).

I said, "Why just me and you? How come there aren't any more?"

He said, "Oh, there'll be lots of folks along here soon. You see, we came in through the back door."

We must have disposed of so much clutter, that as far as I can tell ... in order to find our way into heaven, we must have gone through hell!"
